

Project Alpha Engineering Guide

Classification: INTERNAL - PROJECT ALPHA

Architecture

Project Alpha uses a microservices architecture with an API gateway, order service, inventory service, and notification service.

Deployment

The application is deployed using containers and a managed Kubernetes environment.

Access Rule

Project Alpha engineering information should only be available to authorized Project Alpha members.